Old Business
A. Maximus Dropping Patients From System	A. Mauricio Conde, a Maximus representative, was at the meeting and provided information related to enrollment into the Promise system of HealthChoices. He shared the following salient points: Once a consumer is eligible for MA, they can make a plan selection. Maximus sends them a packet of information including their choices, deadlines, comparison charts, and resources. If they don't hear back from the consumer, a reminder letter is sent and a call is made. If the consumer still doesn't respond, they will be auto-assigned to a plan. However, some people fall through the cracks. Mauricio said they are independent enrollment brokers who are non-biased and don't promote any certain plans or doctors. Their outreach team works with community organizations to provide education to consumers and organizations. They place emphasis on developing community medical homes. Mauricio informed the group of the current 2016 HealthChoices MCOs for physical health: Aetna, Amerihealth, Gateway, United Healthcare, UPMC. The MCOs named for 2017 are: Gateway, Pa Health and Wellness, UPMC, Geisinger Health plan. Mauricio noted that because of the injunction capability that MCOs have the 2017 list of MCOs could be revised and asked that we not notify our clients until a final list has been published which should occur over the next month or two; so, no action should be taken yet. If patients are confused, Keystone's navigators can help them. The

	navigators will take care of dealing with the County. If you move to MA, ask your doctor if they can still see you. There are opportunities to collaborate and they may be able to keep you as a patient. Enrollnow.net has a coverage map. There are enrollment waivers for people 18-59 who have a disability, and aging waivers for people 60+. Anyone can make a referral, but complete information is needed. Mauricio distributed an informational packet with contact information for any further questions. He agreed to come back at a later meeting. Mauricio will do another presentation for the community and Joanne will set up the meeting in the near future.

They have a set of rules which must be followed, including holding steady employment and following treatment plans. They can stay from three to nine months, and the house can accommodate 15 men. Because there was so much interest in the presentation it took up all the meeting time allotted for the group A.
